3) Such piecemeal Recommendations would not only result in duplication of work both in the Corporation offices and here but also render financial check and scrutiny difficult. It may therefore be desirable that Comprehensive proposals be formulated by the Corporation in the beginning of each year with reference to the Budget allotment and sanction of Govt obtained thereto.

4) Now that a Series of such consolidated and individual Recommendations are being received after sanctioning the original Comprehensive proposals, it may not be unlikely that the Corporation may yet have some more cases to be sent up to Govt.

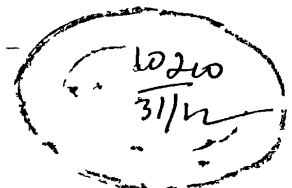

5) The Council are, if approved, be therefore requested to send up a consolidated list of all such further cases with less Revenue for the orders of Govt.

7) The enhancement of contribution as suggested in Para 2 may be agreed and the Comr instructed to avoid piecemeal Recommendations.
